WHAT IS GOING ON TONIGHT Vaudeville and Motion Pictures at Motion Pictures and Illustrated Songs Breed Theater.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

N. E. O. P. meets tonight. Miss M. C. Adles will be in New York all this week. See adv.

The postponed meeting of the W. C. T. U. is to be held today at 3 p. m., room 2. No. 35 Shetucket street.

Our other comedy pictures for this show are live and snappy and they will keep you laughing every minute.

The following students, members of the scalor class, have been recently Strong Bill at the Auditorium.

The Auditorium presents a bill for three days, commencing Monday, April 11th, that would be hard to beat by any of the higher priced houses. It is difficult to definitely place any one of the acts as the special headliner, as they are all equal to the position. Elvia Bates & Co. have a delightful one-act comedy of the higher class, the humor depending upon the odd situations and witty lines rather than rough horseplay. For those who prefer their comedy to be of the opposite mature the comedy acrobats, Brooks & Kinginan, will provide for in their ludlerous but clever gymnastic gambols. A single turn that deserves special mention is Dayton, the man with three volces. Mr. Dayton possesses a phenomenal vocal range, singing equally well as baritone, tenor or soprano, and all three naturally, without sounding forced or artificial. A clever singing and acrobatic dancing team is Francis Melrose and the Clayton Sisters, who put over a gingery, snappy turn that contains no dull moments. Treachery of the Pequots, Thrilling Indian Picture.

The feature picture at the Breed theater for the first part of the week a picture of more than ordinary interest and, being entitled The Treachery of the Pequots, appeals to persons of this section especially. A Puritan family is located in a cabin in the wilderness and the surrounding country is filled, with the nomadic Pequots. A member of the Puritan family finds a wily redskin, feigning illness, near bis door and takes compassion on him and brings him in the house where the second company, New York, Cincinnati and Chicago. CIGARS MAY COST MORE.

Raise in Revenue Tax on Tobacco, Which Goes Into Effect July 1, Will Mean Higher Prices.

Ansonia tobacco dealers are wondering whether an increase in the wholesale price of cigars and tobacco will follow the raise in the revenue tax which takes effect July 1, says the Sentinel. The retail price, they say, cannot very well be increased and the small profit of the dealer is likely to be further reduced. No increase is expected in the wholesale price of cigars, as the manufacturer is expected to assume the burden of paying the added tax, which will amount to from 54 to 75 cents on every thousand cigars. The increase in the tax on tobacco and snuff is from six to eight cents a pound. Very little snuff is sold here, the snuffing habit, which was quite prevalent years ago, having nearly died ext. A snuffbox is rarely seen now and snuff is hardly ever taken excepting perhaps upon the recommendation of some devotee for the cure of some nasal disorder.

Cigarettes will have to pay double the present tax and the price to the cal disorder.

Cigarettes will have to pay double the present tax and the price to the consumer will undoubtedly be raised. The tax after July 1 on eigarettes will be $1.25 per thousand. This rate applies to cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand. On those weighing over three pounds the ax is increased from $3 to $3.69 per thousand. The new rates will not apply to the tobacco in the hands of lealers and jobbers which may be removed from the factories prior to laily 1.

to some means that there will This to some means that there will be a lively trade in tobacco and cigars from now on until July 1. Dealers will naturally buy their stock before the first day of July in order to save what unoney they can and the factories will probably have to run with extra help until that time. The same in a measure applies to cigar factories and cigarmakers will find plenty to do for the next two months or more.

HANDS CRACKED OPEN

"I am a man seventy years old. My hands were very sore and cracked open on the insides for over a year with large sores. They would crack open and bleed, itch, burn and ache so that I could not sleep and could do but little work. They were so bad that I could not dress myself in the morning. They would bleed and the blood dropped on the floor. I called on two doctors, but they did me no good. I could get nothing to do me any good till I got the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. About a year ago my daughter got a cake of Cuticura Soap and one box Cuticura Ointment and in one week from the time I began to use them my hands were all healed up and they have not been a mite sore since. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies.

"They also cured a bad sore on the hand of one of my neighbor's children, and they think very highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John W. Hasty, So. Effingham, N. H., Mar. 5 and Apr. 11, 1909."

MUCH IN LITTLE The roads in the vicinity of Madrid and in many other parts of the coun-try are fully as good as the famous French roads, and motoring excursions are becoming the fashion.

Togoland, German West Africa, lies between the British Gold Coast Colony on the west and the French Colony Dahomey on the east, this part of the coast running cast and west. The colony has an area of 33,650 square miles, and a population of about 1,500,000. The census bureau, in a report on the work of fire departments and the fire losses of the 158 largest cities in this country, finds the average cost of fire protection per capita is $1.65 a year. In Berlin it costs only 26 cents a year, in London 19 cents and in Milan 17 cents.—Bradstreet's.
